

Chair, Department of Health Administration, College of Health Professions
Virginia Commonwealth University
Richmond, Virginia

Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) seeks a visionary and transformative leader to be the next Chair of the Department of Health Administration in the College of Health Professions. The successful candidate will grow a strong and diverse Department by anticipating the changes in healthcare administration and providing the tools needed to succeed in a dynamic environment. Based in Richmond, Virginia, the Department of Health Administration has a strong, 70-year legacy and is a premiere Department geared toward creating the most innovative, compassionate, and business-savvy leaders to reimagine healthcare.

The Department of Health Administration sits within the College of Health Professions (CHP). CHP recently marked its 50th anniversary with the opening of a state-of-the-art 154,000 square feet, eight level, LEED Silver certified building. The Department of Health Administration offers three degree programs; a Master of Health Administration that is ranked fifth in the nation by U.S. News and World Report, a professional Master of Science in Health Administration – Online, and a Doctor of Philosophy in Health Services Organization and Research.

Reporting to the Dean of the College of Health Professions, the next Chair will foster a culture of inclusion, diversity, and equity in one of the top programs in the country. The Chair will champion innovation at every turn, leading a curricular review to ensure that VCU continues to produce the next generation of health administration leaders. The next Chair will be charged with expanding enrollment, recruiting and retaining a diverse and talented faculty and staff, and engaging with a large and successful alumni base. The Chair will be in a strong position to facilitate collaborations and partnerships within the College of Health Professions, as well as health centers and community groups, to provide new opportunities for students, faculty, and staff.
