APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

SUSAN G. COHEN DOCTORAL RESEARCH AWARD IN ORGANIZATION DESIGN, EFFECTIVENESS, AND CHANGE

- ♦ Center for Effective Organizations ♦ Marshall School of Business ♦ University of Southern California
♦ Organization Development and Change (ODC) division of the Academy of Management

DESCRIPTION OF THE AWARD

The Susan G. Cohen Doctoral Research Award was created in remembrance of our friend and colleague who was a research scientist from 1988-2006 at the Center for Effective Organizations (CEO) in the Marshall School of Business, University of Southern California.

The purpose of this award is to provide research funding to a doctoral student whose research work is compatible with the work that captivated Dr. Cohen throughout her career and is likely to make a contribution to both academic theory and management practice.

BIOGRAPHY: SUSAN G. COHEN

Susan G. Cohen received her Ph.D. in Organizational Behavior from Yale University in 1988 and joined the Center for Effective Organizations in the Marshall School of Business, University of Southern California, as a research scientist.

She carried on an impressive research program for the next seventeen years, focusing on

- high performance organizations and high involvement management
- organization change and development
- performance management
- teams in knowledge work settings
- group empowerment and effectiveness
- implementation of technology, collaboration, and virtual team effectiveness

She was the author of numerous articles and book chapters about teams and teamwork, employee involvement and empowerment, and human resource strategies. She was a co-author of Designing team-based organizations: New forms for knowledge work (Jossey-Bass, 1995), Teams and technology: Fulfilling the promise of the new organization (Harvard Business School Press, 1996); and Business without boundaries: An action framework for collaborating across time, distance, organization, and culture (Jossey-Bass, 2004). She was co-editor of Virtual teams that work: Creating conditions for effectiveness (Jossey-Bass, 2003). She was an active member of several professional societies, including the Academy of Management, the Western Academy of Management, the American Psychological Society, and the American Psychological Association.

AWARD AMOUNT

The winner of the award will receive $2,500 in research funding. The award is to be used to support the completion of dissertation research that aligns with Dr. Cohen's research interests.
